

I do not believe that any exceptions to the New Jersey Do Not Call List should be available. We are adults and can decide for ourselves who we wish to purchase from and who we don't and we can contact them ourselves.

It has been wonderful to sit down to dinner and not have the phone ring constantly and I for one want it to stay that way.

Thank you.

Joanne Gurick